

Informal Meeting of Ministers for Agriculture

European Day of Agriculture

9th May 2005

Media programme *

- 9 am Parking Park&Ride – Kirchberg (Circuit de la Foire Internationale)
Meeting place for all the media
- 9.15 am Transfer to Dickweiler (near Echternach) by bus
(Farm of the Lamborelle Family – 12, rue Principale, L-6557 Dickweiler)
- 10 am Farm – Lamborelle Family
Presentation of the European Day of Agriculture
- Speech by Fernand Boden, the Luxembourg minister for Agriculture, Viticulture and Rural Development and current President of the Minister's Council of the European Union
 - Speech by the European Commissioner Mariann Fischer Boel
 - Speech by Sylvain Marmier, the President of the CEJA (European Council of Young Farmers)
- Exhibition and tasting of local products from the nature reserve and the LEADER projects
- 11 am Transfer from Dickweiler to Wormeldange
- 11.40 am Cellars of Poll-Fabaire crémant wines
Visit of the cellars (FR and EN groups)
Followed by a wine-tasting session
- 12.45 pm Transfer to Remich
- 1.15 pm Restaurant St. Nicolas
Lunch for the media representatives
- 2.45 pm Transfer to Schengen
- 3.30 pm Schengen - Celebration of the European Day of Agriculture (9 May)
Welcome by the mayor and the pupils of the primary school of the land of the three borders
Visit of the European information centre and view of a short film on Europe
Followed by a reception
- 4.30 pm Transfer to Luxembourg-Kirchberg (Parking Park&Ride)

* Media representatives who wish to cover this day are required to send a confirmation e-mail at the address accreditation@eu2005.lu, also precising if they will use the bus shuttle to Dickweiler and if they are present for lunch.

Please note that the press centre of the Kiem Conference Centre is closed on 9th May 2005!

Parking Park&Ride Kirchberg (meeting point)

